THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF POLITICAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

3457 Walnut Street

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Origin and Purpose. The Academy was organized December 14, 1889, to provide a national forum for the discussion of political and social questions. The Academy does not take sides upon controverted questions, but seeks to secure and present reliable information to assist the public in forming an intelligent and accurate opinion.

Affiliated centers. The Academy has two affiliated centers — The Pacific Southwest Academy of Los Angeles, and The Academy of World Economics in the City of Washington.

Meetings. The Academy meets occasionally each year during the winter months, either for an evening session or for conferences lasting one or two days; it also holds an annual meeting in the spring extending over two full days and including six sessions.

Research fellowships. From time to time the Academy grants fellowships for the carrying out of projects in the field of the social sciences.

Publications. (a) THE ANNALS is the regular bi-monthly publication of the Academy. Each issue contains from twenty to thirty articles on some prominent social or political problem. With rare exceptions, all articles published are written at the invitation of the editors. These volumes constitute important reference works on the topics with which they deal, and are extensively cited by authorities throughout the United States and abroad.

(b) The Academy issues a Monograph Series as a medium of publication for the research reports made by the holders of the Academy's fellowships and for other important social science studies.

(c) A Pamphlet Series has been established for the publication of occasional pamphlets. The papers of permanent value presented at the meetings of the Academy and its affiliated centers are included in THE ANNALS.

Membership. Applications for membership in the Academy should be addressed to the Secretary. The annual membership fee is $5.00 and the life membership fee is $100.00. Members of the Academy receive the regular issues of THE ANNALS and are invited to the meetings.

Subscriptions. Libraries and other institutions are invited to subscribe to THE ANNALS at a cost of $5.00 per year.

Monograph No. 2

THE NEGRO AS CAPITALIST

By ABRAM HARRIS, Ph.D.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY, WASHINGTON, D. C.

DR. HARRIS presents the first study of the Negro's struggle to gain economic status and social respectability by erecting within the larger framework of capitalism a small world of Negro business enterprise. In 1924 there were thirty-five Negro banks in the United States, but at the time of the study there were only twelve. Dr. Harris investigates these banks, analyzing their financial structure and the character of their administration, the causes of their failure, and the qualitative and quantitative character of their business. His discussion will interest the banker and the business man as well as the student of race relations and the thoughtful general reader.

Announcing CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

Edited by HERBERT F. GOODRICH, LL.D.

Dean of the Law School, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia

"Rights" under the Constitution cover a wide field. Freedom of speech, of the press, of religion, come first to the mind. But "due process" and "equal protection of the laws" also involve rights; so does the "obligation of contracts" clause; likewise the less discussed but important provision for "full faith and credit."

This series of articles is most timely in view of the recent focusing of public attention on changes in the Constitution and the lengthy discussions in the press. The materials presented are written by authorities and will be of great interest not only to the lawyer and to the student of government, but also to the layman.
